CATHOLIC LIFE

Thank you to Year 4 for leading Mass on Wednesday.

Some of the children have been taking part in Rosary Club on Tuesday lunchtimes. They have behaved so sensibly and reverently.

YOUR CHILD'S SAFETY

Can we please remind parents NOT to leave children outside the top gates at 8:00am, even before the school site is open. If it is a wet morning, they are standing in the rain for half an hour before they can get access to their classrooms at 8:30am.

Children should not be on the school grounds BEFORE 8.20am. The safety and welfare of your child is your responsibility until the start of the school day.

Thank you for your co-operation

Any Harry Potter or Goth Girl fans out there? Anyone want to find out what it is like being an author and illustrator? Well you are in luck!

The amazing Chris Riddell is on a national tour to promote J.K.Rowling's new version of The Tales of Beedle the Bard, which he has illustrated. Tickets for the event, on Thursday 11th October at 7.30pm at the Albany Theatre, include a discount on the price of the book. See www.albanytheatre.co.uk for details.

PUNCTUALITY

Unfortunately, in some classes, it is the same children who are late each morning, some by just a few minutes. Being in school on time, helps your child get the most from their education, establishes routine and helps them get into good patterns for the future.

Have a lovely day boys and girls 😊

PACKED LUNCHES

Can we remind parents whose children bring a packed lunch to school that cans of fizzy pop are not allowed. Children should bring water, fruit juice or sugar free squash.

Thank you

SCHOOL COMMUNICATIONS

Letters were sent home this week with every child regarding Harvest Festival and Invitations to the Film Club.

Y6 pupils also had a letter regarding 'Sing Out With Joy'

HAPPY RETIREMENT

We wish Mrs French (lunchtime supervisor), a very restful and Happy Retirement, after over 20 years' service at St. Augustine's.

We will still see her in school when she comes in to teach knitting.

We will miss you 😊
