CATHOLIC LIFE

This week we have entered the season of Lent.

The children have been given 'Good Shepherd Appeal' boxes this week and also Walk With Me calendars to help them and their families pray together.

This is a time to reflect on our lives and grow closer to God. It is also traditionally a time to fast, pray and give. During this season we will be encouraging our children to support the fundraising events that take place and give something up or do something extra - this could be giving up chocolate and donating the money to charity, to pray more, to help tidy their room or wash up. We will be encouraging the children to live simply during Lent - please take time to talk to your child about how they can do this for the benefit of others and the environment.

THIS WEEK'S LETTERS

Cancellation of parent's evening, Year 5C trip to London and a letter from Mrs Forrest.

A week off! A great opportunity to chill out with a good book and also visit your local public library. If you have children aged 4-7 why not take them to Jubilee Crescent Library on a Saturday 11-11.45am for Storytime? The library also holds a Chatterbooks book club on the last Friday of every month for 7-11 year olds. The next one is the Friday of half term, 5.30pm - 6.30pm.

Well done and good luck to our Y6 Book Quiz team members, through to the final of the Coventry Book Quiz in March! We know that Estelle, Kian, Matti, Sahil, Berenice and Patrick will be doing lots of extra reading over half term to make sure they do well in the general knowledge round.

WORLD BOOK DAY 2018

We celebrate books and the love of reading every day at St Augustine's, but World Book Day on Thursday 1st March gives us another excuse to spend even more time reading and enjoying books! Each class will be up to something different on the day. Perhaps you could do something over half term to celebrate books? The website <http://www.worldbookday.com/> has lots of ideas.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION MEETING

Please note there is a change of date for the next Holy Communion meeting and the Mass of Forgiveness. The new dates are Thursday 8th March at 4:30pm and 10:30am Sunday 11th March.

Thank you
